

Presents LIVE MUSIC with the SILVER LININGS FAMILY TRIO at the Art Exhibit of Carol Rosenak. TRIO features family members of John Biggs, local composer and former husband of beloved Carol Rosenak

Saturday, June 18, Live Music 3-5pm at the Ventura County Museum, 100 E. Main St, in Ventura

We'll be playing Bach to Beatles, Sinatra to Santana and some favorite gems.

SILVER LININGS TRIO INCLUDES:

Jennifer Biggs Walton has played violin on hundreds of movie soundtracks. She also contracts musicians for recording sessions, live performances, and filming projects via her talent management company, Instrumental Casting. During the pandemic, she created LA Curbside Entertainment to bring live performances to people safer at home. She has also taught violin and piano lessons to people ages 4 to 74 for over 35 years and still enjoys it!

Adrienne Biggs plays violin in Marin County, just north of San Francisco. She plays for beautiful church services, concerts, and recording sessions. During the pandemic, she created and leads an ensemble called Trio Viva that plays at upscale restaurants and special events every week in Northern California! Adrienne and Jennifer are sisters and Adrienne is here visiting for a few days.

Oliver Walton is Jennifer's son. He plays cello in chamber ensembles, orchestras and recording sessions. He is also one of the Assistant Talent Managers with Instrumental Casting. Oliver appears as a cellist on numerous commercials and TV shows and he also plays for weddings and special events.

